c. 10th AAMDC does not tolerate or condone harassment. Harassment jeopardizes combat readiness and mission accomplishment, weakens trust within the ranks, and erodes unit cohesion. I expect Soldiers and Department of the Army (DA) civilian employees, assigned or attached to this command, to at all times treat people both within and without the command with dignity and respect while on or off duty whether on or off post.

d. Individuals may report incidents of harassment that include bullying, hazing, or other unacceptable behavior to their chain of command, the Equal Opportunity Advisor, the Inspector General, or the military police. Furthermore, it is the duty of anyone who witnesses or becomes aware of harassing conduct directed at another person to report the matter.

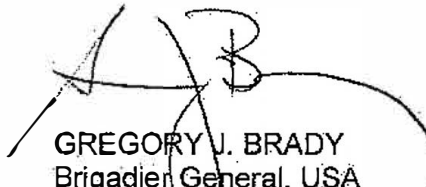

e. Personnel who report incidents are protected from acts or threats of reprisal.

f. Commanders will report allegations of criminal behavior of The Army Harassment Prevention and Response Program (hazing, bullying, and discriminatory harassment) to law enforcement and consult with the command's legal advisor before conducting any further inquiry or investigation.

g. Regardless of the type of investigation conducted into a Harassment allegation, commanders are responsible for coordinating with their unit equal opportunity advisor to ensure the allegation is properly recorded and tracked.
